Place Your Sticker Properly to Complete Your Registration

Thank you for registering your vehicle. Please be aware that your vehicle is not fully registered until your registration sticker is affixed to the lower left corner of the windshield – as you face the windshield while sitting in the driver’s seat – above the VIN. [Please note that this sticker has an adhesive and will be difficult to reposition, so be sure to place it properly the first time.]

If You Need to Change Vehicles or Residence Lots

If you change cars or housing part way through the school year, please contact Security immediately in order to avoid any charges for updating your information. There is no charge for updating your information, if done so in a timely manner.

If You Need Parking Accommodations because of an Injury or Illness

If you have an injury or an illness and temporarily wish to access additional parking locations, please contact Security immediately to discuss your particulars and to sort out a solution.

If You Receive a Parking Ticket

Do not ignore it. If you receive a ticket, you can either appeal the ticket within 10 days of its issuance or pay the ticket in the business office.

If you choose to appeal the ticket, the appeal forms are available in the Security Office or online at Hillsdale.edu/campus-life/student-support/safety-security/. You will need to appeal your ticket within 10 days and the results of your appeal will be returned to you via email.

If you choose to pay the ticket, you can 1) take the ticket to the Cashier’s Window and put the amount of the ticket on your account or 2) wait until the 15th of the following month for the charge to appear online and pay it that way.
